

A FANTASTIC OPPORTUNITY

“COPING WITH THE STRESSES OF HAVING A YOUNG CHILD WITH HEARING LOSS”

Dr. Atkins has a Master's Degree in Deaf Education (Columbia University) and a PhD in Educational Psychology (UCLA). She is a licensed psychologist with a private practice in New York City, but is perhaps best known for her lectures and regular appearances on television talking about a wide assortment of life issues – from child development and parenting, to dating, marriage, mid-life crises, managing stress, aging well, and wellness. For the last 12 years, Dale has regularly appeared on NBC's Today Show. She often addresses topics oriented toward helping people deal healthfully with anxieties and stresses of everyday life. Dr. Atkins will be the keynote speaker at the A.B. Bell International Convention in Arizona in July. For more information or to receive her free monthly newsletter (“Sanity Savers and More”), please visit her website: www.drdaleatkins.com

WHO IS THE INTENDED AUDIENCE?

Parents, Grandparents, Aunts, and Uncles of children with hearing loss, from (birth to 6) and related professionals.

Adults only please! We love your children, but please give yourself the gift of listening to this talk without distractions.

WHEN & WHERE

Saturday April 28, 2012
10AM to 1:30 PM
CREC Soundbridge
123 Progress Drive
Wethersfield, CT 06109
Simple Lunch Served

FEES

Parents: Free!!!

Professionals: $40, including lunch
Please make checks out to CREC Soundbridge
CEU's offered, both State and LSLS

CO-SPONSORS

CREC Soundbridge, American School for the Deaf, and the New England Center for Hearing Rehabilitation
-Sign Language Interpreting is available-

Please RSVP by April 20th so that we can save a space for you! We need to know the number of people in your party, and whether or not you will need sign language interpreting.